“Frosty Falls” Campout 2009

- WHEN: September 18- 20, 2009
- WHERE: Horseshoe Bend Park – 1924 240th St., Milford, Iowa [To find the park – go 3 miles south of Milford on U. S. Highway 71 and 4 miles west on 240th Street. Campground is on north side of river. Look for the NA symbol in the campground.]
- WHAT: - There will be campfire meetings on Fri. and Sat. nights at dusk (around 730pm), and there is typically a campfire / breakfast meeting around the campfire Sunday morning.
- The Clay Co. Fair (World’s largest County Fair!) is going on at this time, in Spencer, 20 minutes south of here, its fun for the whole family.
The Okoboji area (Amusement park, fishing, boating, etc.) is 15 minutes north.
- There will be a raffle at some point over the weekend, along w/ sales of NA items. We have some NICE raffle stuff!
- The park has an excellent hiking trail, a large playground for kids, volleyball courts, and is set on a bluff overlooking the river. It’s really a nice low-key place to camp.
- COST: $5 suggested donation (no addict turned away, but please remember that you are responsible for paying for your own campsite.) Camping is $10 / night, we will have a shelter house available. There are modern bathrooms, but no shower. All sites are non-electric, but we will have some power on site. Campground is very scenic and quite secluded and will be all ours.

Please come join Iowa’s newest AREA (formerly the western half of the #2 Peace Area) for yet another “Frosty Falls” campout. The location for this event is awesome – we also have our New Year’s Eve, “Spring Fling” (April) & Octoball (October) functions here, along with another one of our campouts – “Fishing for Recovery” (June). There is something for every season here, please come check it out!
